TOWNHOUSE LIVING EXTRAORDINAIRE

This immaculate home offers all the lifestyle and convenience of townhouse living yet still has the size, features, and feel of a larger home – including a spacious yard. And all this without Body Corporate fees. Perfect for professional couples, young families or active retirees who are seeking the freedom of a low maintenance home, but still want and need some space to live, entertain, and operate.

Enter the ground floor of this spacious home to find a substantial open plan living, dining kitchen combination, complete with value adding upgrades including skylights and designer fans. Downstairs, is also home to the 4th bedroom / guest suite or second living / media room – complete with two-way ensuite – a neat European laundry and more. The remote garage with internal entry is also here on this level.

Upstairs find a substantial master bedroom with ensuite and robe and two additional double bedrooms both with built in robes sharing a full family sized bathroom with bathtub. There's also a study nook cleverly accommodated on this level.
